Calling all Prayer Shawl Makers

The Visitation Ministry Team needs more prayer shawls especially ones in colors for men. There will be a prayer shawl blessing in June. Please bring completed shawls to the church office or the church on the day of the blessing.

The prayer shawls are made by members of the Shepherd of the Valley Congregation to be given to members, family and friends to be a reminder of the love of God which surrounds at all times. It is a symbols of the prayerful concern of our congregation for those experiencing difficult times. It is exciting that the Visitation Team has been able to use the prayer shawls as part of their ministry. The shawls are wrapped around the recipient as prayers are given. Many who have received prayer shawls have been deeply touched by the gift.

Anyone wishing to make a shawl can find a knit or crochet pattern and yarn on the self in the Narthex. Any soft yarn or other pattern would be fine. Shawls should be approximately two feet wide by four to five feet long. Your efforts are greatly appreciated. Any questions please contact Joan Nielson 208-322-6161.
